BANDITS BUSTED BY DISC HOLDERS

It's a steal for George

CAR-AZY George Lamb was so impressed with his bandit-busting Sunday Sun tax disc holder that he bought 20 more!

He is giving away the tamper-proof holders as gifts to family and friends. And now George's bumper buy has won him a tenner in our champion anti-tax disc theft campaign.

He is among nearly 9000 readers who have snapped up the holders — which tear your disc if a thief tries to steal it — at the cost price of 99p. George, 54, of Shildon, Co Durham, said: "It is a brilliant idea.

"I got one for myself and I thought they were so good, I got all my family and friends one. It's excellent."

And if you're one of the lucky five people whose registration number is printed here, you've won £10!

To claim your prize, call in at our Newcastle head office with your registration document. Or send us a photocopy of it with another form of identification.

HOW TO GET YOURS NOW!

YOU can get your tax disc holder at 99p cost price at our offices in Groat Market, Newcastle, or Gazette Buildings, Borough Road, Middlesbrough.

OR complete the coupon and send it with your cheque or postal order for 99p, made payable to the Sunday Sun. The address is on the coupon and you should enclose a 9" x 6" (23 x 16cm) SAE.

If you've bought one of our bandit busting tax discs, then take a bow...

Because police chiefs have praised your champion Sunday Sun and our family of readers for helping to foil car crooks all across the North.

Nearly 10,000
motorists now use
the tamper-proof
disc holder to stop thieves in their tracks.

Pat Varley of Northumbria Police's crime prevention unit is enthusiastic.

"Once word gets around that the licences can't be removed there's no benefit for the thief from stealing one."

Our mailbags are still bulging, with requests for the 99p holders.

And if you're one of the five whose number plate is printed here, you've won £10!
